Question 1

Carefully read the text below, consisting of 12 lines, about a three-day adventure camp. The first and last lines are correct. For the remaining ten lines, there is one grammatical error in each line. Circle the incorrect word and write the correct word in the space provided. The correct word you provide must not change the original meaning of the sentence.

Last November, my class went on a three-day adventure camp at a nature reserve.

The camp were organised by our teachers, who wanted us to build confidence. 1

On the first day, we arrived to the campsite and put up our tents. 2

Our guide gave us an useful map of the forest trails nearby. 3

We spend the whole morning learning how to read a compass correctly. 4

My friend Daniel and me were chosen to lead the first hike. 5

We climbed the steep hill very slow, stopping often to catch our breath. 6

We carried extra water because there were less streams than we had expected. 7

That night, the stars in the sky look brighter than we had imagined. 8

We sat around the warm campfire and listened at our teacher's stories. 9

The camp taught me many importance lessons about teamwork and never giving up. 10

I will always remember those three days as the best part of my year.
